Almighty and Eternal God, in Your Fatherly goodness, be kind to the soul of Your servants. Cleanse them who You have called from this world of all their faults, take them in the Realm of Light and Peace and into the Community of Your Saints, and give them their share of Eternal Delight in your kingdom. God, Creator and Savior of all the faithful, forgive all the sins of all Your servants souls. Let them receive forgiveness through our prayers, for which they have always been yearning. For this we pray through Jesus, Our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." Matthew 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God's active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day, for all that we have been given.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

We will announce the Christmas Mass times next week.

Saturday church cleaning is now going to be from 9 to 11 am.

When you're in a debate and you have the Saint Joseph quote to end it all
