3rd Sunday of Lent March 12, 2023

The Samaritan woman's encounter with Jesus called her to scrutinize her life, as we are called to scrutinize ours. Like the Catechumens who begin three weeks of scrutines today we should examine carefully our lives. In every Eucharist, we are called to face our lives with honesty and courage. To look at our lives in the light of Jesus' life. And to receive the living water of his merciful love.

Stewardship Reflection

*"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again."
- John 4:13*

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us over the long run. When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only comes when we follow Jesus - when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Seminarian Prayer Calendar

This Lenten season, the Vocations Office asks that you consider keeping our seminarians in your prayers. The Seminarian Prayer Calendar assigns a day to pray for each of our seminarians. We thank God for them and pray that they may become strong Christian men who are faithful to prayer, diligent in their studies, open to spiritual direction, and docile to all aspects of seminary formation. Download the calendar at beholdvancouver.org/events.

Defence of land and territory: Around the world, many communities are mobilizing to defend their territories against threats posed by extractive industries and industrial agriculture. These people are often threatened, criminalized or even killed when they stand up to protect their lands, their livelihoods and their very existence.

Development and Peace – Caritas Canada stands in solidarity with these peoples. With our partners, we support communities' efforts to protect their territories and biodiversity for present and future generations. This Lent, stand for the land. Learn more at www.dev.org.

Our Parish is subscribed to formed.org, a website with Catholic videos, audiobooks, and e-books. Every parishioner has 24/7 access to the best Catholic content from home. To access this website go to formed.org and sign up with Our Lady of Good Hope.
